TOP ESPN THE MAGAZINE'S ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA® FOOTBALL TEAM

TOWSON, Md. — Record-setting quarterback Tim Tebow of number one-ranked Florida and wide receiver Beau Kildow of #7 Morningside College (Iowa) headline the 2009 ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America® Football Teams, as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

Tebow and Kildow have been chosen as the winners of the Academic All-America® of the Year award in the University and College Divisions, respectively.

The winner of the Academic All-America® of the Year for the second year in a row, Tebow is the first Scholar-Athlete to be named as the Academic All-America® of the Year for University Division Football in two consecutive years. A four-year starter for the Gators, he is putting the finishing touches on a remarkable college career. He has led Florida to two national championships and a four-year record of 46-7. As a freshman, he quarterbacked Florida to a 13-1 record and a 41-14 victory over Ohio State in the national championship game.

After guiding the Gators to a 9-4 record as a sophomore, he quarterbacked Florida to a 13-1 record last season, including a win over Oklahoma in the national championship game. In his senior season, he has led the number one-ranked Gators to an 11-0 record. Florida currently owns the nation's longest winning streak at 21 consecutive games.

A Family, Youth & Communication Studies major with a 3.66 G.P.A., Tebow became the first sophomore to win the Heisman Trophy in 2007. A three-time All-American quarterback, he also won the Davey O'Brien Award and the Maxwell Award as a sophomore. In his sophomore year, he set an NCAA record by rushing for 23 touchdowns.

In 2009, he has thrown for 1,945 yards with 14 touchdown passes. He has run for 706 yards and scored 11 TD's.

A native of Jacksonville, Fla., Tebow has passed for 8,335 yards in his career. He has thrown 81 touchdown passes with only 15 interceptions. He has rushed for 2,562 yards and scored 54 touchdowns in his career. The Southeastern Conference Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2008, Tebow has set four NCAA records, ten SEC records and 24 school records.

A leading candidate for the Heisman Trophy, he was named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America® Football University Division first team for the third straight year.

Tebow is one of five repeat selections on the 24-member ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America® Football University Division first team. Junior running back Kyle Minett of South Dakota State, senior defensive lineman Brandon Wingeier of Dayton, senior linebacker Josh Hull of Penn State and senior defensive back Beau Hadley of Weber State were also selected to the first team for the second consecutive year.

An Environmental Systems Engineering major with a 3.56 G.P.A., Hull is one of three Penn State Scholar-Athletes to be named to the first team. A pair of Nittany Lion offensive linemen, graduate student Andrew Pitz and junior Stefen Wisniewski joined Hull on the first team.

Undefeated Texas, the third-ranked team in the nation, was the only other school with multiple selections on the first team. Graduate student Adam Ulatowski, an offensive lineman, and junior defensive lineman Sam Acho represented the Longhorns on the first team.

Senior Andre Anderson of Tulane joined Minett as the running backs on the first team while graduate student Zeke Markshausen of Northwestern and senior Blair White of Michigan State are the wide receivers. Senior tight end Colin Peek of undefeated Alabama was also named to the first team. Senior Jim McKenzie of Syracuse and junior Andrew Jackson of Fresno State complete the offensive line.

Senior Jacob Kragt of Eastern Washington and Adam Rundh of Valparaiso joined Acho and Wingeier as the four defensive linemen on the first team.

Seniors Josh Mahoney of Northern Iowa and Mike Nixon of Arizona State joined Hull to complete the linebacking corps on the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America® Football University Division first team.

Joining Hadley as the defensive backs on the first team are graduate student Josh Cain of Jacksonville State and seniors Scott Johnson of Brigham Young and Chris Rocco of Liberty.
