

2018 Symposium on Democracy Events

This Symposium was highlighted by internationally-renowned experts on democracy, student and faculty led panel discussions, exhibits in the U. Grant Miller library, and participation by the W&J community including:

Lecture 1

Presentations by Faculty and Students

Held in the Allen Ballroom, Rossin Campus Center

- Article: Discussion on Technological Influence Opens Inaugural Symposium on Democracy
- Article: Magellan Scholars Discuss International Travel
- Video: Student Panel: Democracy on the World Stage

Lecture 2

"Can American Democracy Survive Without a Thriving Middle Class?"

Lecture by Stephen B. Young, global executive director, Caux Round Table for Moral Capitalism.

Held in the Allen Ballroom, Rossin Campus Center

- Article: Young Promotes Need for Flourishing American Middle Class
- Video: Can American Democracy Survive Without a Thriving Middle Class?

Lecture 3

"The Foundations of American Democracy: 1776-1865."

Lecture by Richard Carwardine, FRHistS, FBA, FLSW, Professor of American History and former President of the Corpus Christi College, Oxford

Held in the Olin Fine Arts Center

- Article: Carwardine Discusses Democracy Through Actions of Nation's Founders

- Video: "The Foundations of American Democracy: 1776-1865"

Lecture 4

Lunch and Learn with Richard Carwardine

Discussion of Carwardine's book, "Lincoln's Sense of Humor"
Held in the Allen Ballroom, Rossin Campus Center

- Video : "Richard Carwardine - "Lincoln's Sense of Humor"

Lecture 5

"The Legacies of Washington and Jefferson: 21st Century Perspectives."

Panel discussion

Held in the Allen Ballroom, Rossin Campus Center

